

Indiana Midwifery Taskforce Rally

January 24, 2008

9:30 am - 1:30 pm

Please join us on January 24th for the Indiana Midwifery Taskforce Rally, at the Statehouse in the Rotunda, 200 West Washington Street, Indianapolis. The Statehouse is the Capitol Building of Indiana. If you have never been to the Statehouse you will find this is a wonderful opportunity. The building is absolutely beautiful and was built in 1878.

We will convene from 9:30-1:30. We will have speakers, food, and will lobby and visit our legislators regarding our midwifery licensure bill and write letters.

What to bring?

- Yourself
- Everyone you know
- Signs (without sticks - they won't let us have sticks) with midwifery slogans
- Chants and Songs (We shall overcome....)
- Wireless laptop if you have one
- Decorate your car with midwifery slogans and signs
- Your enthusiasm!

Please bring your kids, and a few neighbor kids, your grandma, and your eccentric aunt and COME! Vote with your body, and get to the Statehouse to support your midwife, so that she can practice legally in Indiana. If you loved your homebirth, get to the Statehouse. If you believe in a couple's right to have a homebirth, get to the Statehouse!

Please help us get the word out!
